Am I Helping God?

I had an interesting conversation with a fellow church member this morning. We were talking about one of the trials a friend of ours was going through and OUR tendency to insert ourselves into the mix and help God. Have you ever done that? Thinking at the moment that God needs my help and I know just what needs to be done. More times than not though, in these situations my mind is making so much noise that I couldn't hear God's REAL desires. I'm starting to learn more and more, especially in circumstances like this, scripture, prayer and supplication are my tools.

Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth. Psalm 46:10

In Emmaus, we often talk about how we need to get out of the way and LET GOD. The key is seeking God's will vice our own desires. Rest assured HIS results will be much greater than ours.

This is an exciting time for our community as we prepare for the spring walks. Please continue to prayerfully cover the Pilgrims, Teamers and families associated with every aspect of TW 104 and 105. Be blessed.

or Jesus said...

n A Sunday School teacher had just finished telling her third graders about how Jesus was crucified and placed in a tomb with a great stone sealing the opening. Then, wanting to share the excitement of the resurrection, she asked: "And what do you think were Jesus' first words when He came bursting out of that tomb alive?" A little girl's hand shot up into the air from the rear of the classroom. Leaping out of her chair she shouted out excitedly, "I know, I know!" "Good," said the teacher. "Tell us, what were Jesus first words?" And waving her arms high in the air she said: "TA-DA!"
